

Mr. Aaron Dennis Johnson, Sr.

August 20, 1968 - August 21, 2010

Aaron Dennis Johnson, Sr., son of Larry Sturgis and Edmonia Johnson was born on August 20, 1968 in Chester, PA. He suddenly departed this life on August 21, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

Aaron, affectionately known as “Boobie”, was raised in Baltimore, MD and received his diploma from the Baltimore City School System.

Aaron worked in the Supermarket Industry as a Meat Cutter for 22 years until he retired in 2007.

Aaron married his childhood sweetheart, Charisse “Resse”, and from this union they were blessed with two beautiful children, Sharonda and Aaron, Jr. Family and friends saw him as a perceptive, strong-willed, and compassionate man. He was a good provider and wise counselor.

In his retirement, Aaron enjoyed fishing, grilling out, going to Atlantic City, watching football and basketball games, and just about any activity that involved family. He was happiest when he was surrounded by family and friends.

Aaron’s last and strongest words were the calling of Jesus’ name. Those who knew him loved him and will miss him dearly.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted and loving wife, Charisse; his son, Aaron, Jr.; his daughter, Sharonda; his mother, Edmonia “Sug”; one sister, Nicole Robinson (Michael); three brothers, William Hughes, Elbert Hughes, and George Johnson (Tiffany); mother-in-law, Gloria Burch; three fishing buddies, Charles Dismel, Bill Harrington, and Craig Crouel; and a host of relatives and friends.

“I have fought a good fight. I have kept the faith, I have finished my course. And now, I am ready to be offered up”
