“ One day I had to go to Stella Maris, something to do with work, I believe. I walked in and who did I run into but Aunt Dorothy. We were both so surprised at seeing each other. She grabbed me by the arm and immediately took me on a tour, introducing me to her co-workers, saying “this is my niece”. I cherish that memory and how in that moment she made me feel so special. And too, the relationship she had with my mom (Marie Daniels) was equally special. My mom would always say to me “I talked to your Aunt Dorothy today”, as if they hadn’t seen or talked to each other in years when it was probably just the day before they last spoke. But that didn’t matter. Every conversation, every visit, was an occasion. I was grateful for that bond, the friendship they enjoyed, the way Aunt Dorothy touched the hearts of so many, like my mother.
