

Ms. Frances J. Williams

January 13, 1947 - September 7, 2021

Celebrating the Life of Frances Jacqueline Williams

Frances Jacqueline Williams, daughter of the late Phyllis Johnson and James Williams, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 13, 1947. She ascended to heaven after a lengthy illness on September 7, 2021 at Penn Medicine.

She received her high school diploma from Catholic High School. She had an entrepreneurial spirit and a giving soul. In 2011, she started Frances Cleaning Services. She accepted Christ at an early age. Frances joined True Fellowship Church soon after relocating to Philadelphia, PA in 2006, where she remained a faithful member until her death.

Frances loved spending time with family and friends. She enjoyed traveling, reading, listening to gospel music and doing word searches.

Frances was preceded in death by her grandmother, Thelma Johnson; her mother—Phyllis Johnson; her father—James Williams and her son—Aaron Newman.

Frances leaves to cherish her legacy, her daughter Annette Davis; her grandsons; Brandon Newman and Corey Newman; her granddaughter Matina Muntaqem; great granddaughter Chloé Griffin and a whole host of family and friends.
