

Karleen Loretta Ryan

October 31, 1959 - August 1, 2014

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me”.

Psalm 23: 1-4

Karleen L. Ryan, oldest daughter of the late, Lloyd and Virginia Ryan was born on October 31, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 1, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon graduating in 1978 she took a job as a cashier at Millers Delicatessen, where she worked for several years.

Karleen had a zest for life, she enjoyed reading, dancing, and going to the casino and being around family and friends. She especially had a love for children.

She leaves to celebrate her memory: one brother, Keith Ryan; two sisters, Karsandra McLean and Genevia Ryan; a best friend and sister, Lenora Green; two friends, Delores and Valerie; two nephews, Tavon and Robert; two nieces, Tor’ray and Arria; three great nieces, Taya, Taysha and Rhi’onna; one great nephew, Lil Tavon; a Goddaughter, Janora; and a host of family and friends.

“A Loving Tribute”

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss

“A Loving Tribute”

Cry not anymore, for she is not gone. She took a journey into God's loving arms. We know she's in a much better place with Mom, Dad and sister Jean. We will hear her voice when the wind blows; see her face when the sun shines, feel her tears when the rain falls; and remember her smile wherever we go. She sits on that cloud so high above; looking down on us and saying "Do not cry anymore, for I am not gone, I am a sleep in God's loving arms".

Lovingly submitted.

"A Loving Tribute"

Karleen, you were truly a best friend and a sister and all the years that we cherished together, you will be truly missed.

I Love You Always,

Lenora

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. The Bible also assures us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Death was never part of our Heavenly Father's original purpose for mankind. In fact, in His word the Bible He calls it an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5) At that time tragedies and accidents will be a thing of the past, no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24) and there will be a reuniting, a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope. (2Cor. 1:3,4)
