

Tito Penix

March 4, 1972 - October 6, 2020

Tito Penix was born March 04, 1972 in Baltimore Maryland to Vernon L. Penix and Peggy Penix (deceased). Tito was educated in Baltimore City Public schools. Tito was very well known and liked by many. He always had the latest and greatest when it came to clothes and was known to be a ladies' man. He and his best friend (Shawn Gilchrist) were also known to get into trouble together.

Growing up Tito had a passion for wildlife (aquatic animals) and had extensive aquariums that he would make himself. He was also into martial arts among many other sports. He was very much into music up until his last days.

In Tito's younger years he was a DJ that always had the latest records and the biggest speakers. He was always the life of the party. Tito was a fun-loving guy who loved his family & friends. Tito had a previous union with Keya S. Simon in which no children were produced.

Tito struggled courageously during his illness and defied the odds for a long time. His struggle ended when he succumbed to his illness and departed this life on Tuesday October 06, 2020 at 04:30 am.

He leaves to mourn his passing his father Vernon Leroy Penix; a brother Vernon Eugene Penix; aunts Deborah Edwards and Beverly Smith; Longtime devoted girlfriend and soulmate, Yvette Astwood; cousin Clinton Hunter and his wife Teresa Hunter; Davina Brooks and a host of other relatives, family and friends. A special mention to his cousins Cheryl Epps and Antoine Rivera (deceased) who were very close to Tito.
